Worker

The Worker is a background daemon that runs alongside the CRM. When a task takes a long time (such as chatting with an AI, running a process, uploading documents for a vector search, etc..), the Worker handles it asynchronously so the browser does not freeze and the user can keep working. Also it allows the processing to be detached from the browser request, allowing the user to close the tab.

See the dedicated chapter here.

Revision #7
Created 2026-06-25 12:33:26 UTC by Diego
Updated 2026-09-22 15:14:04 UTC by Diego